MONDAY EVENING. AUG. 27, 18:4

THE GRAPE MARKET .- Mr. Adolph Russow, superintendent of the Monticello Wine Company, stated recently that they would give from one to four cents per pound for grapes this year. The price last year ranged from one to five cents, a difference of one cent per

The decrease is due to the great production of grapes this year in California, where they are selling for five dollars per ton, and on the lake coast, where they are bringing only about twelve dollars per ton. The Monticello Wine Company used upwards of seven hun-dred thousand pounds of grapes last year, but Mr. Russow thinks that they will need only about five hundred thousand pounds. The wine grapes are just coming in, and the question now is whether, even with the great reduction in express rates, the grape growers around Charlottesville can afford to ship their fruit. It was thought that the scarcity of other fruits would tend to advance the price of grapes, as it did some years ago, but it has not done so. —Charlottesville Chronicle.
